

2019 - 2020 Gifted and Talented Overview

2nd Grade	3rd Grade	4th Grade
Creative Thinking Skills - Students will demonstrate the use of higher order thinking skills by using the ability to apply new and unusual solutions to problems.	Creative Thinking Skills - Students will demonstrate the use of higher order thinking skills by using the ability to apply new and unusual solutions to problems.	Creative Thinking Skills - Students will demonstrate the use of higher order thinking skills by using the ability to apply new and unusual solutions to problems.
Critical Thinking Skills - Students will demonstrate the use of higher order thinking skills by showing the ability to analyze different types of data.	Critical Thinking Skills- Students will demonstrate the use of higher order thinking skills by showing the ability to analyze different types of data.	Critical Thinking Skills - Students will demonstrate the use of higher order thinking skills by showing the ability to analyze different types of data.
Personal Growth Development - Students work to become self aware through recognition of their inherent characteristics.	Personal Growth Development - Students work to become self aware through recognition of their inherent characteristics.	Personal Growth Development - Students work to become self aware through recognition of their inherent characteristics.
Elements of Art - A study of the 7 elements of art that helps us analyze, understand, and create any type of artwork. By using art pieces from the National Gallery of Art, students will gain the ability to identify the elements and how different artists use them.	Economics - We all want money, we all need money. How do we spend, save, and give in a way that we can win with money? Through stories and hands-on activities, we will learn about saving, giving, and spending while learning the basics of money.	Economics - We all want money, we all need money. How do we spend, save, and give in a way that we can win with money? Through stories and hands-on activities, we will learn about saving, giving, and spending while learning the basics of money.
Multiple Intelligences - Students will discover their different learning intelligences: linguistic, logical-mathematical, musical, bodily-kinesthetic, interpersonal, intrapersonal, spatial, and naturalist.	Multiple Intelligences - Students will discover their different learning intelligences: linguistic, logical-mathematical, musical, bodily-kinesthetic, interpersonal, intrapersonal, spatial, and naturalist.	Multiple Intelligences - Students will discover their different learning intelligences: linguistic, logical-mathematical, musical, bodily-kinesthetic, interpersonal, intrapersonal, spatial, and naturalist.
National Treasures - Students will explore the USA's national landmarks and geographical features.	Countries Around the World - Students will explore different cultures and countries.	Middle Ages - Students will journey back in time to the Age of Feudalism.

2019 - 2020 Gifted and Talented Overview